Ophelia Mangono MA BA

Summary:

I qualified as a Social Worker in 2007 and continue to work in the children and families sector. I am a skilled and professional individual who has substantial experience in managing complex cases involving; undertaking Section 47 investigations/inquiries, Parenting Assessments, initial and complex core assessments, Kinship Care Assessments, reports and Court care plans, as well as Form F Assessments. I have experience in assessing and working with children, young people and their families within different settings. My training and experience has enabled me to focus on assessing the risk, needs and best interest of children and young people; assessing their needs and best interests with regard to safety, risk, vulnerability and emotional wellbeing. I have also supported Unaccompanied Asylum-Seeking Children (UASC) and have experience of being the assessing social worker in Merton compliant age assessments. I have acted as an appropriate adult in accordance with Police & Criminal Evidence Act 1984. I currently complete assessments and reports for local authorities, solicitors and private court cases. The fields I specialise in are assessing the needs and best interests of children and young people, deportation, immigration, asylum seeking children, Individuals and families.
